

Drug Delivery Experts Expands Capabilities in Strategic Partnership with KYDES Pharmaceuticals

July 11, 2017 – San Diego, CA

Drug Delivery Experts and KYDES Pharmaceuticals have initiated a strategic partnership to expand their research and development services. Through this partnership, Drug Delivery Experts will gain access to the specialized dosage form capabilities of KYDES which include targeted, extended, and triggered release formulations for oral delivery as well as topical spray formulations, creams, emulsions, and sustained release injectables.

“This partnership reaffirms our vision to change lives through leadership in drug delivery systems and provide clients with the right drug product solution for their application”, stated Christopher A. Rhodes, CEO of Drug Delivery Experts. “We are excited to partner with KYDES Pharmaceuticals to leverage their creativity and extensive experience in dosage form design and product development. We look forward to our new venture together and the opportunity to offer clients an expanded array of drug delivery technology solutions.”

Stephen Dordunoo, CEO of KYDES Pharmaceuticals, commented “We are excited to work with the team at Drug Delivery Experts. The partnership will allow us to apply our dosage form technologies to an increasing number of new compounds. More importantly, I believe our collaboration with DDE scientists will enhance the creativity of each organization and lead to the achievement of highly innovative drug products.”
